GUARDIAN.—Joseph F. Mayes has been appointed guardian of L. Mayes, daughter of the late Cassandra R. Mayes—bond $300.

BRING TOWN DOWN.—The old brick house just east of the Court House, on Monroe street, is being torn down to make room for two buildings. The property belongs to Dr. E. A. Hilditch.

SETTLED.—L. G. Rockwell was to have had an examination before Esqr. Kammner last Saturday, on a charge affecting his faithfulness to his legal spouse, but the matter was settled by the parties—Rockwell agreeing to pay the costs.

DEAD.—We know all our readers who heard Mrs. Moulton in the grand concert given here a few weeks since by the troupe under her management, will regret to hear of the death of her husband, which occurred suddenly at Cambridge, Mass., on the 17th inst.

CHANCE OF GUARDIAN.—Thursday last, George Hook was appointed guardian of John H. Caroline C. and Mary A., infant children of the late Geo. Wm. Stamm. This appointment was made to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Henry Stamm.

NEW CHURCH ENTERPRISE.—We hear that an effort is being made among our Presbyterian friends to build a church the coming summer on the Island. The enterprise is certainly a most laudable one. The Seventh Ward is improving more rapidly, perhaps, than any other in the city, and must now have a population of fifteen hundred or two thousand. There are not church accommodations in the Ward for more than one-fourth of either number, and it is to furnish additional facilities for the community to attend religious worship that the effort is being made as mentioned above.

FIRE IN BELLAIR.—The residence of A. Sheets, Esq., who lives in Bellaire, was discovered to be on fire Friday night. The flames had not made much headway when first seen, and the prompt application of a few pails of water extinguished them, but not until a bed and two, the carpet, and a portion of the furniture of one room, were badly injured. The fire is supposed to have originated from a piece of burning coal rolling off the grate to the floor. For a few minutes there was quite an excitement in the neighborhood, but the prompt and active exertions of those living near prevented the flames from extending to adjoining property.

THE MEETING, SATURDAY NIGHT.—Elsewhere in our columns this morning will be found a pretty full report of the meeting held in the Court House, Saturday evening, in the interest of Protection. The attendance was quite large, and the eloquent remarks of the several speakers elicited warm and hearty applause. We do not believe a more enthusiastic crowd has gathered within the walls of that "venerable old pile of dilapidation," since the "good old days of Tippecanoe and Tyler too," than that of last Saturday evening. There is no doubt about the effect such meetings will have on the public mind. All that the people need is instruction on the great principle of Protection, to make them rally in defence of skilled labor and home manufactures against the productions of the poorly fed and low priced artisan in foreign lands.

MOVING TIME.—The deservedly dreaded season of "moving" is rapidly approaching. Already the busy note of preparation is heard on every hand, and an occasional dray or wagon is seen passing along the street, piled high with the household goods of some unfortunate victim of circumstances. A few words of counsel might not be inappropriate at this juncture. We advise all our readers who have to undergo the torture, to put themselves in training for it at once. Practice patience, self-denial, and all the other virtues as rigidly as ever did any cloistered monk or nun. Prepare yourselves to bear every species of annoyance and affliction, and as this is near the close of Lenten season, it might be well to try how long the physical man will run without full rations. Experiments in disposing of cold victuals would also be found beneficial, as the probabilities are that your powers in this respect will be put to the test in a few days. You will need to be as full in all these matters if you expect to pass through the "moving period" unscathed. And you need not think that because yesterday was a bland and beautiful day, the first of April will be like it, and more so. It takes more than two swallows to open up the spring season in all its beauty. It does not matter how balmy the weather may be 'up till the birth of April; there will be rain, or hail, or sleet, or snow, before that month is half over. It has always been so in regions where the great "moving time" occurs on All Fool's Day, and it always will be, doubtless, until the end of time. We don't believe the season has anything to do with it, either, for if we are to place confidence in the reports received from other quarters, even where the general crash takes place on the 1st of May, the same disagreeable meteorological incidents accompany the epoch. So confident are we of the truth of the last assertion, that we feel little risk in averring, if people had to move in the middle of July, it would make, perhaps, no difference—the heavy fall of snow, or cold, dismal rain would be on hand and lend its aid to the horrors of the occasion. About the best thing poor mortals can do is to regard the moving business as a necessary evil, and put the best face possible on the matter. Keep up a good flow of spirits (but not by pouring spirits down), and look forward with peculiar satisfaction to that future state "which knows no mutations or first of Aprils."

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.—The stockholders in the Maritime Railway Company held a meeting Saturday afternoon, and elected a Board of Directors for the ensuing year. The stock subscribed was largely represented, and the election resulted in the choice of the following gentlemen: Messrs. William Clark, L. Spence, H. W. Smith, W. H. Travis, E. R. Couch, D. Smith and William Hall. A majority of the Board are practical men, and the projected enterprise can hardly fail to be successful under their management. It is proposed to have the establishment as purely co-operative as possible, so that there will be a community of interest. The present week will be devoted to securing the stock not already subscribed for, and those who have surplus means in any amount from two hundred dollars to ten thousand, and are competent "to take a hand" in the mill, we believe, will have the preference.

LIVINGSTONE PANORAMA.—The matinee, Saturday afternoon, and the closing presentation at night of the great Livingstone Panorama were well attended. The interest which the travels of the celebrated explorer everywhere elicited, and the superior character of the paintings representing his journeying through Central and Southern Africa, form attractions which can hardly be resisted wherever an opportunity is offered to follow him in this pleasant way through the swamps and jungles of that terra incognita. We are gratified that so many of our citizens expressed their appreciation of the merit of this great panorama by attending on each occasion it was unrolled in the city.

FOURTH WARD SCHOOL.—The entertainment given Friday evening by the Grammar department of the Fourth Ward school was so grand a success, that its repetition was earnestly and urgently demanded. The management yielded to the solicitation, and on Saturday evening presented the choicest portions of the preceding programmes, making the entertainment one of the very finest character. The attendance was quite good, considering that there were several other places of amusement open on the same evening. Everything passed off most satisfactorily.

THE HENRIE FEAST OF PURIM.—Last Saturday at 6 P. M. the Hebrew feast of Purim, a season of uncommon enjoyment to the Israelites, commenced, and ended at the same hour yesterday evening. It commemorates the proposed destruction of the Hebrews throughout the Persian Empire by Haman, the prime minister of Ahasuerus, the events connected with which are graphically described in the Book of Esther. The day is observed wherever a Hebrew lives, and its principal feature is the distribution of gifts to the poor Israelites by their wealthier co-religionists.

CONNECTION.—Mr. Abner McLure writes us to correct a mistake which appeared in our columns, Saturday morning, in reference to the name of an individual who was before the police court Friday morning. We gave the name "Abner McLure" as it was given to us, but it seems it should have been "Abner McLane." Mr. McLane paid his fine very promptly and was discharged.

MATRIMONIAL.—There was a marked improvement in the matrimonial market last week, as compared with the week previous. Five expectant grooms called on Recorder Woods between the 15th and 23rd inst., and received as many permits to be united in the holy estate of matrimony, addressed to those authorized to celebrate the rite.

PALM SUNDAY AND HOLY WEEK.—Yesterday was Palm Sunday, on which day the Catholic Church commemorates the triumphant entry which Christ made, in a humble garb, into the city of Jerusalem, according to what had been foretold by the prophet Zacharias. To celebrate this day that church has instituted the festival of the blessing and the distribution of palms. The palms are distributed by the officiating priest to the clergy and laity, which they receive kneeling at the railing, and are generally borne to their homes and preserved by members of the congregations in remembrance of the occasion. High mass is celebrated at the time, and during the reading of the Passion of Christ the congregation stand, all holding the palms in their hands, while the choir sing the Stabat Mater. At many of the churches, to-morrow will be unusually solemn.

The whole of the week following is called "Passion Week," commemorating the events which marked the last days of the human life of the Savior. It is strictly observed in the Roman Catholic and Episcopal Churches, and is observed with more or less solemnity by other denominations. On Wednesday evening, in the Roman Catholic Churches, what is termed the Tenebrae will be sung, and each evening 'till Friday. During the Gloria on that day the bells and organ play forth, but are silent thereafter until Holy Saturday. At the elevation two hosts are consecrated, one for use at the presentified mysteries of Good Friday; what are called the sacred oils are also consecrated during the mass; and at its conclusion the host, which is to be reserved until the morning, is brought in procession to a "sepulchre"—a second altar, erected as a repository, and generally handsomely adorned—where it remains until the office of Good Friday.

The observance of Friday—Good Friday—is marked with all the manifestations of grief the solemn event commemorated is calculated to arouse—the crucifixion of the Savior on Calvary and accomplishment of the work of redemption. On Holy Saturday the fire and incense, together with the paschal candle will be blessed, and the twelve prophecies chanted. On the Sunday following, Easter Sunday, comes the joyous celebration of the resurrection.

THE LECTURE FIELD.—Our neighboring town of Bridgeport has recently contributed to the world of belles-lettres a female lecturer. Miss Mollie Trueman, the lady referred to, has only appeared before the public in the role of a lecturer on two occasions, but it is said the elegance of her composition and elocution, with careful culture, is certain to place her in the foremost rank of the crowded lecture field. With a fine appreciation of dramatic effect, she is at the same time singularly natural and unaffected, and her quiet self-possession will insure success wherever she speaks.

POLICE COURT.—The case of Jacob Freese (charged with assault), which had been continued from last Monday morning, was disposed of at Saturday's session of the police court. The parties, in the mean time, had compromised their difficulties on condition that Freese would pay the costs, to which his Honor assented. John McGilligan and John McNicholl, accused with creating more disorder than was consistent with the peace and quiet of the neighborhood where they were, had to pay five dollars each and costs. William Orr, drunk, one dollar and costs.

WILL IT PAY to buy the Eureka Organ? Most assuredly, for they are better made than most of other organs, have prettier cases, have book closets which no others have, a sweeter tone, are the easiest in the world to blow, and cheaper, and sold on the most accommodating terms at Sheib's music store, Monroe street.

ADMITTED TO PROBATE.—On the 19th inst., the will of the late Wilhelm Junke was admitted to probate in the Recorder's office of this county.

On the same day, Augustus Rolf, Jr., named therein as Executor, qualified, after having filed a bond with a penalty of $3,500.

A WANT SUPPLIED.

To supply a want felt for a real genuine good article of Soap at a reasonable price, the undersigned has now manufactured such an article, as all testify who have seen and used.

The Favorite Soap,

Manufactured by E. REID, Wheeling, W. Va.

I claim that it cannot be excelled, in purity and quality; 3d, in economy, because it is firm and hard as soap and will not shrink when exposed to the atmosphere, like most soaps do; 4th, in its use, it will wash half as much more as the soap now in use at the same price; 5th, for perfection in washing. You must wash with a pure, clean soap, or you cannot have clean, white clothes. After the Favorite Soap, you will have no more trouble getting your clothes white and faultless, and guarantee that it will not injure the delicate fabrics. 6th, I claim for it an advantage over all others in that it will bear leaving in water for 8 or 10 hours without injuring it. Other soaps are rendered useless by forgetting them in the tub or basin after using. Please require of your grocer for the Favorite Soap, and you will be convinced that it is the best.
